

Editors' Comments

Stephen Demanchick and Rachel Jordan

We are proud to present our second edition of the Person-Centered Journal as editors! This has been a fulfilling year for us as editors and we are grateful for all of the talented authors who have worked diligently throughout the submission process, to help us bring the Person-Centered Journal to you. Because of all of our authors' hard work, we are further enriched as a community and hopefully energized by their ideas, research, and opinions. The variety and scope of the articles and book reviews contained in this journal, represent a great tradition of scholarship and unwavering appreciation and enthusiasm for the Person-Centered Approach.

We are especially grateful for Kathryn Moon's hard work reviewing, editing, and writing book reviews! She has been an essential and thoughtful member of our team and we appreciate the role she has had in making this journal successful.

We also would like to thank our Editorial Review Board for their prompt and thoughtful feedback on the articles we receive. As always, if you would like to be part of our team, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Finally, thank-you for allowing us to be a part of the Person-Centered Journal's rich history. We hope you enjoy this issue!