INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

1. The original copy of the manuscript should be typed or computer printed on 8.5" x 11" on translucent white bond.

2. The manuscript should be prepared in APA style. Refer to the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, Fourth Edition. (Ordering information can be obtained from APA, 750 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20002-4242.)

4. Double-space everything, including references, quotations, tables, and figures. Leave generous margins (at least an inch all around) on each page.

5. Avoid footnotes whenever possible (see APA Publication Manual for alternatives).

6. Use tables sparingly and type them on separate pages. Include only essential data and combine tables whenever possible. Refer to the APA Publication Manual for style of tabular presentations. Figures (graphs, illustrations, line drawings) should be supplied as camera-ready art (glossies prepared by a commercial artist) whenever possible. Figure captions should be on an attached page, as required by APA style.

7. Lengthy quotations (generally 300 cumulative words or more from one source) require written permission from the copyright holder for reproduction. Adaptation of tables and figures also requires reproduction approval from the copyright source. It is the author’s responsibility to secure such permission, and a copy of the publisher’s written permission must be provided to the Editor immediately upon acceptance of the article for publication. Authors submitting transcripts of actual cases will be required to sign a waiver acknowledging that client informed consent has been secured.

8. Place authors’ names, positions, titles, places of employment, and mailing addresses only on the cover page if requesting an anonymous review.

9. Avoid the use of generic masculine pronouns or other sexist terminology. Also use terms such as client, student, or participant rather than subject. When referring to people with disabilities and describing their experiences, be careful not to use language that stereotypes or diminishes them.

10. Never submit previous published material or material that is under consideration by another periodical.

11. Submit an original an three copies of the manuscript, and an abstract of up to 150 words to Jo Cohen, The Person-Centered Journal, Department of Counseling and Human Services, Kutztown University, Kutztown, PA 19530. Authors should keep a copy of their manuscript to guard against loss.

12. It is expected that most manuscripts submitted for publication in The Person-Centered Journal will undergo revision before final acceptance.

13. Because of the production process of The Person-Centered Journal, authors whose manuscripts have been accepted for publication are expected to provide both a hard copy and a diskette copy of the manuscript (final version) prior to the editors sending it on to press. Use 3.5" diskettes in IBM or Macintosh software format (Word Perfect is preferred). The submitting author’s name and the hardware and software used in preparing the diskette must be clearly labeled on the diskette.

14. Manuscripts submitted via e-mail will not be accepted.

Note: Authors bear full responsibility for the accuracy of references, quotations, tables, and figures. The Person-Centered Journal sends the final ready print manuscript (as a galley) for final check for wording and correctness of the authors’ communications. It must be returned within one week to the publisher.
