

A unique feature of Person-Centered conferences is the community meeting. This meeting is open to all participants. We have scheduled a community meeting every 6 hours around the clock to accommodate worldwide participants. Please spread the word! Join us and make it more colorful with your presence!

Community meetings offer us a free space for expression of feelings, ideas, thoughts, opinions, controversies—basically whatever the person is moved to contribute. There is no formal facilitation, but most often other group members provide understanding responses to allow for furthering the dialogue and to spark communication.

The meetings are scheduled for 2 hours but may run longer if participants want to continue. This 2 hour time period is blocked out in order not to conflict with presentations or workshops. There will be a “Community Room” which will be open throughout the event, so participants can drop in as they wish.

Business Meetings

Three of the community meetings will be earmarked for doing the business of ADPCA, including electing officers, hearing the Treasurer's report, membership report, and all other business. Because ADPCA is an association of volunteers, please think about volunteering for any position which is of interest to you. These business meetings are open to all members, even if they are not taking part in any other aspect of the event. The membership secretary will email all members just prior to the beginning of the conference with details about how to join in the business meetings. You are invited to submit items for the agenda.

Book NOW! <https://adpca.org/adpca-conference-2023/booking/> The 5 day conference costs $100.00, admitting the attendee to all of the meetings and workshops. If you have limited time, you can book individual days. Everyone who books for any part of the event is welcome to attend the Business Meetings.

Scholarships (bursaries) are available to anyone needing them. If needed you can request an automatic 25% reduction. Students can register for 50% of the conference fee. Should you need a greater reduction, please email adpca2023@outlook.com and we will do our best to meet your needs.
